

QUOTE FROM THE EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

The SPORTS ILLUSTRATED brand

Sport is more than just winning or losing 1-0. It's the people and their stories that inspire us — with their skills and with their personality. Athletes become role models because we're always watching them. They fascinate us with their charisma, their boundless drive to succeed and their ability to overcome every obstacle that stands in their way — again and again. We commiserate with them because their defeats are ours, and we celebrate with them because their victories are ours, too.
